

Composite score by zip codes

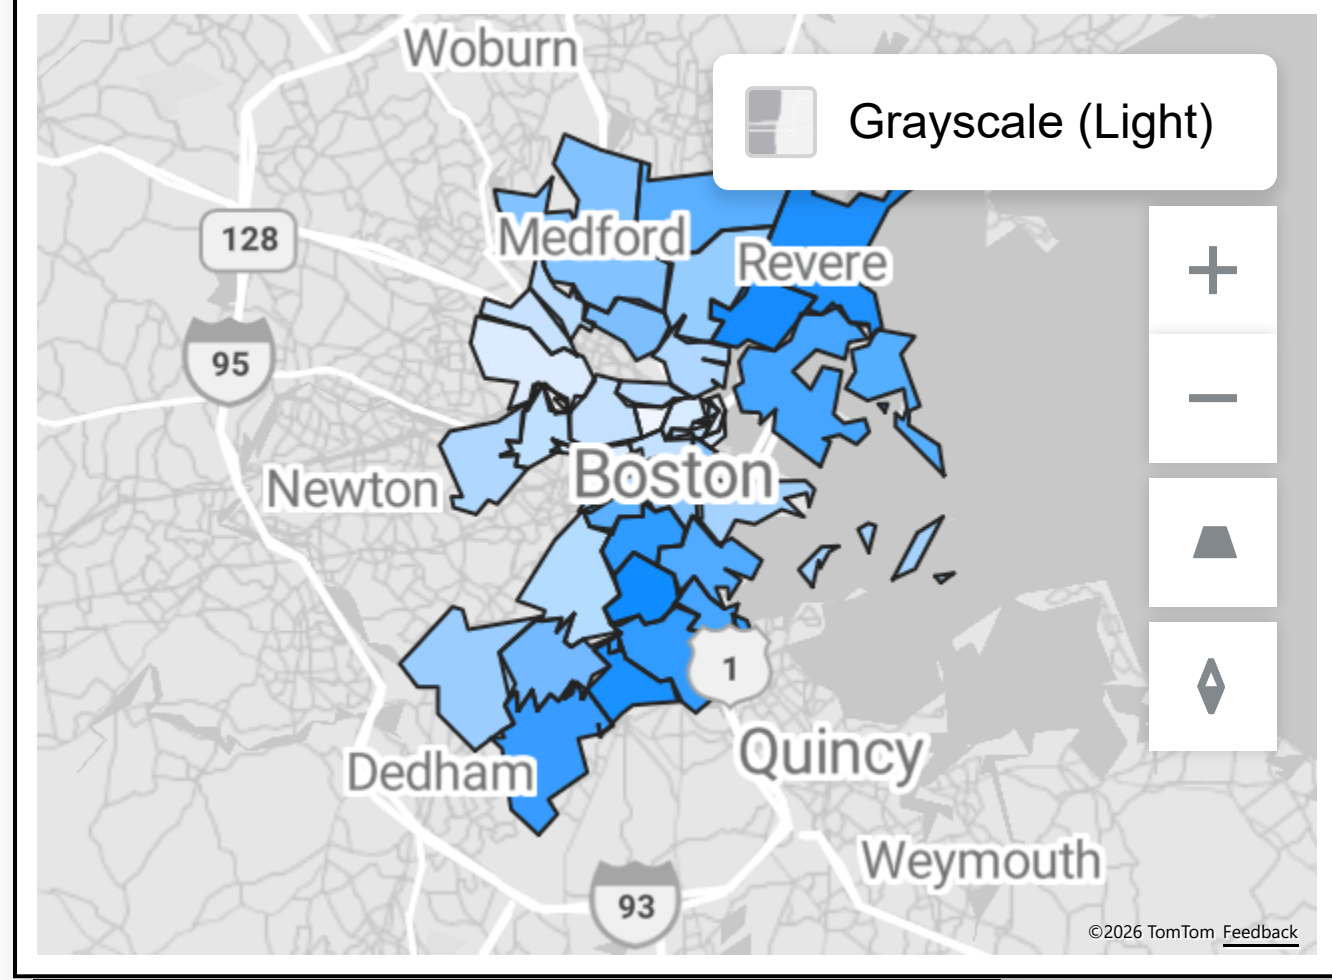

Median Household income across Boston Neighborhoods

Education level across Boston Neighborhood

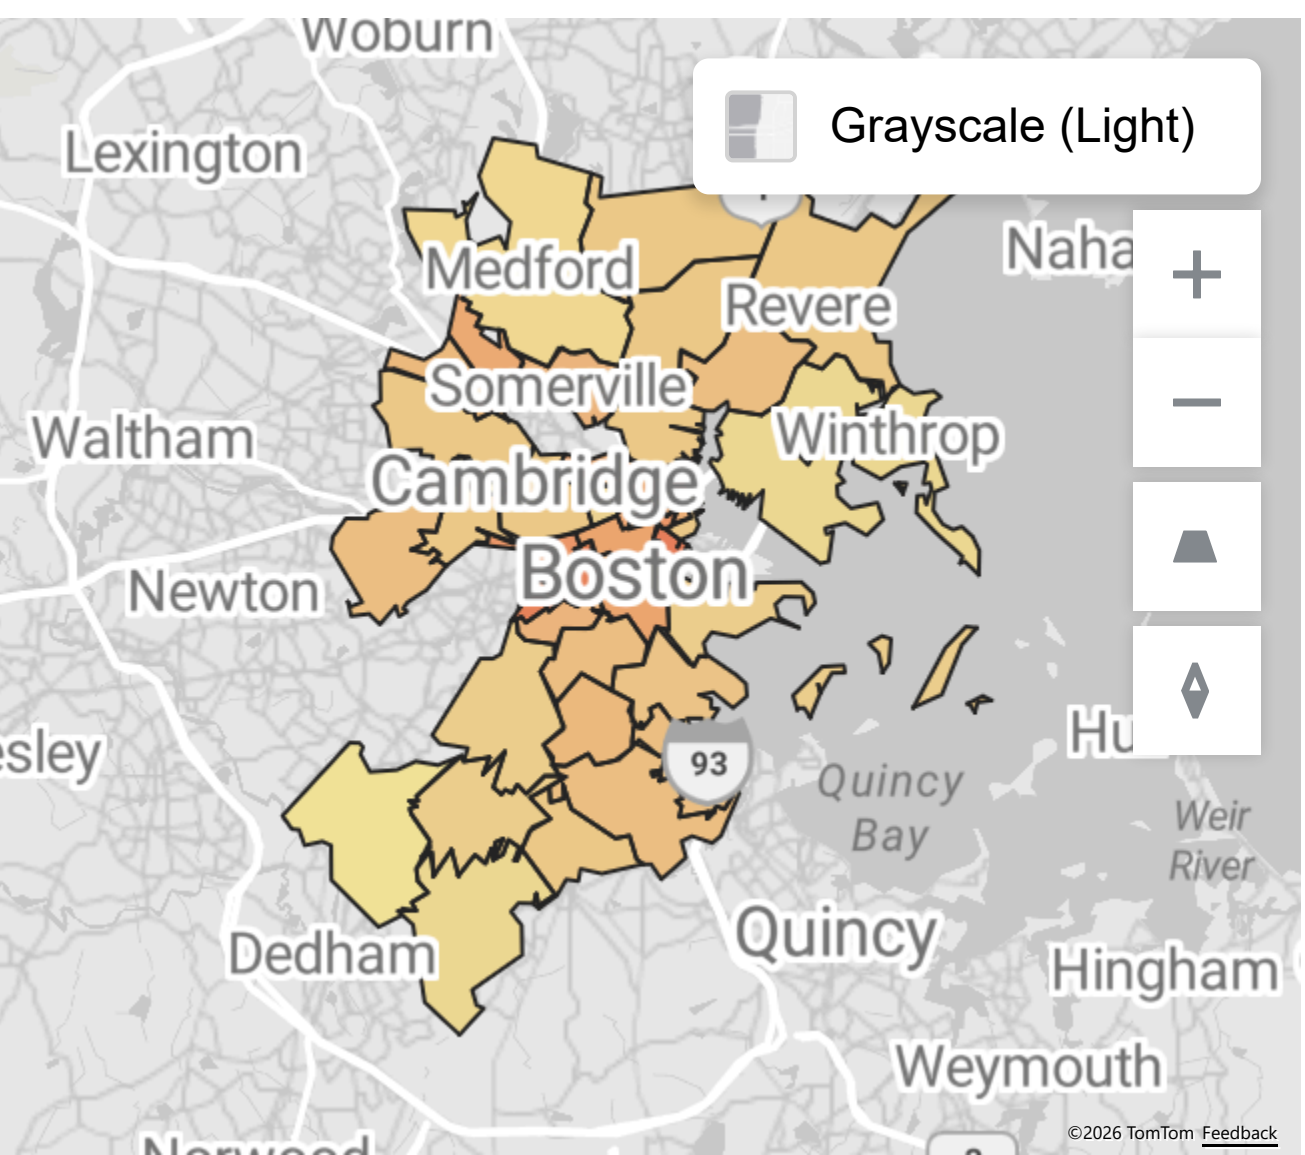

Multi-metric interactive comparison of Boston Neighborhoods

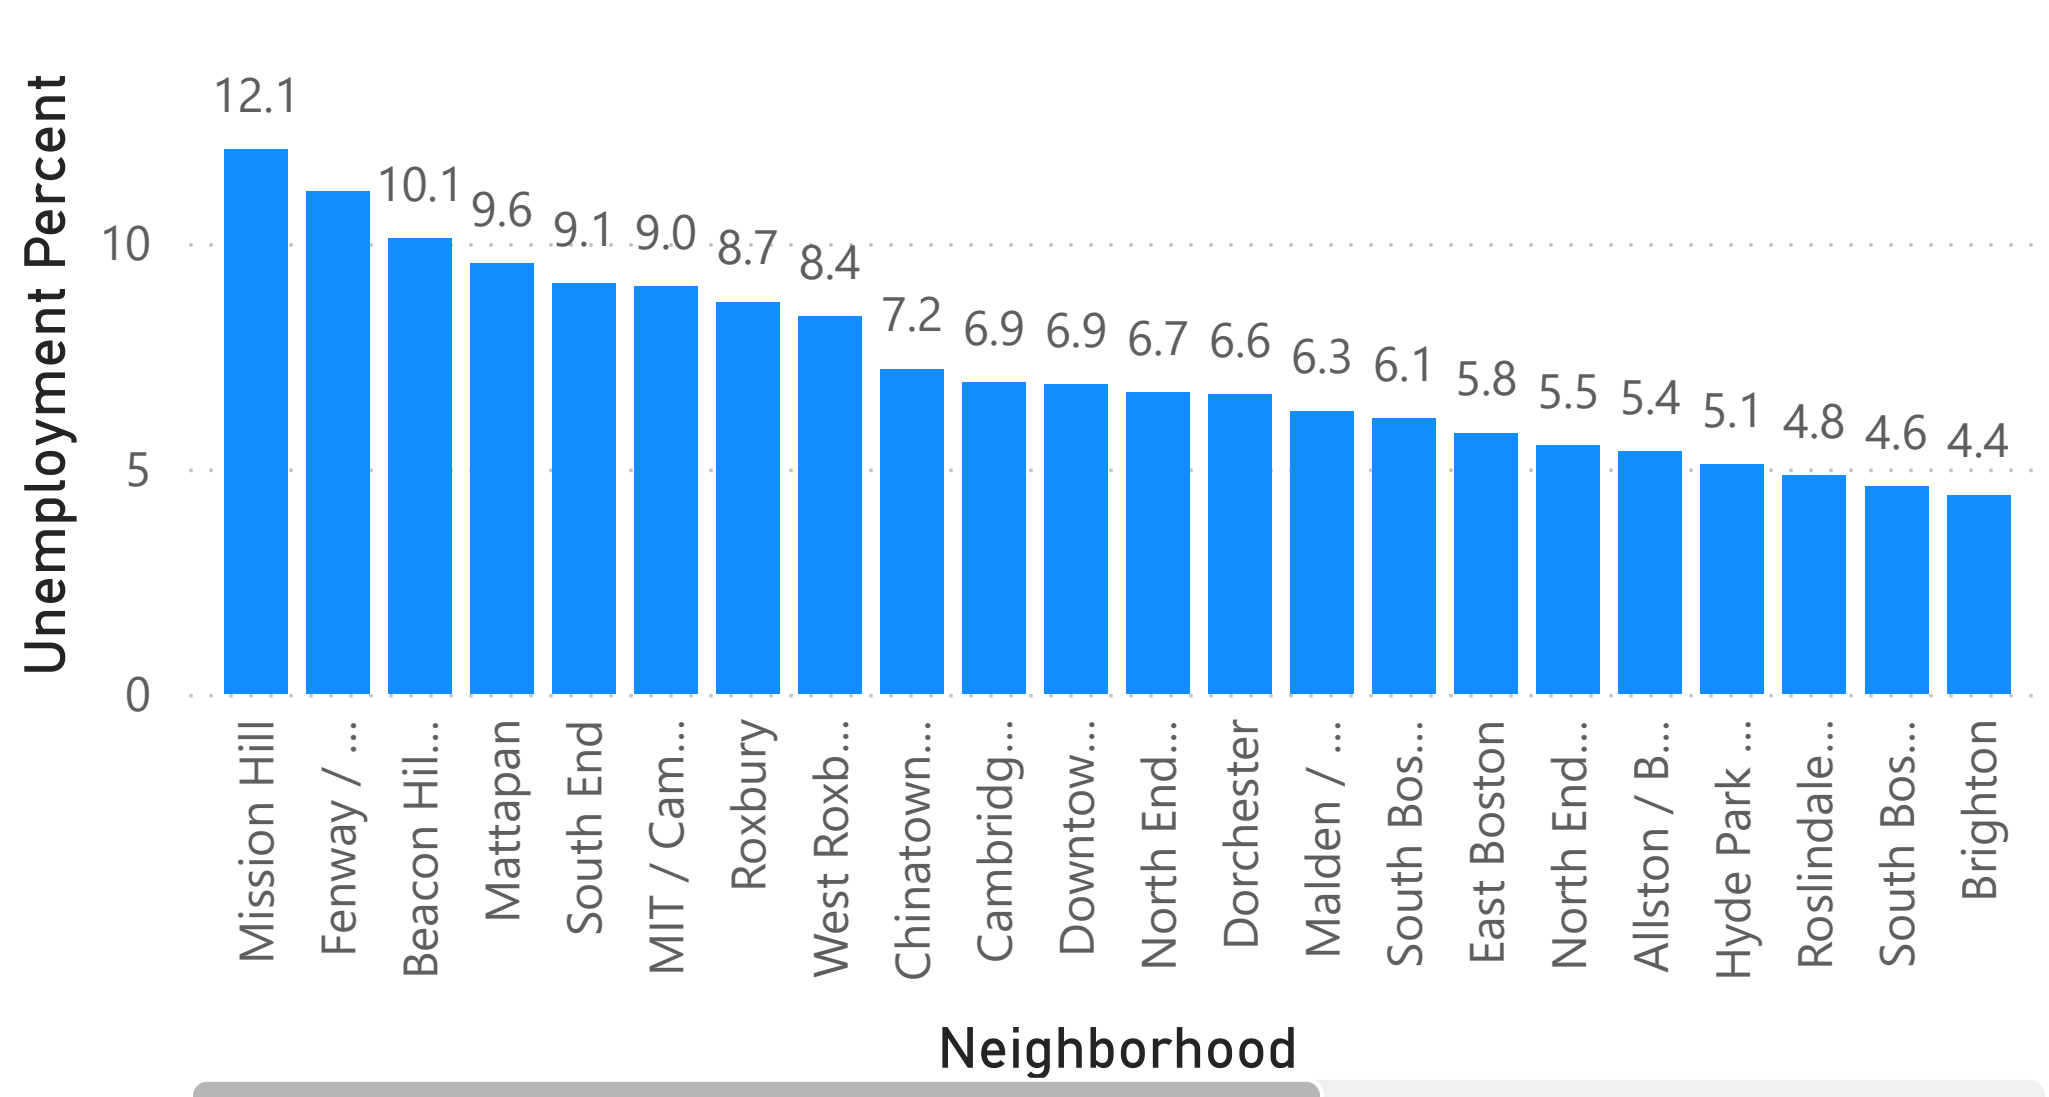

- Variable
- Education
 - Median home value
 - Median Household income
 - Population Density
 - Unemployment Percent

Population density by zip codes

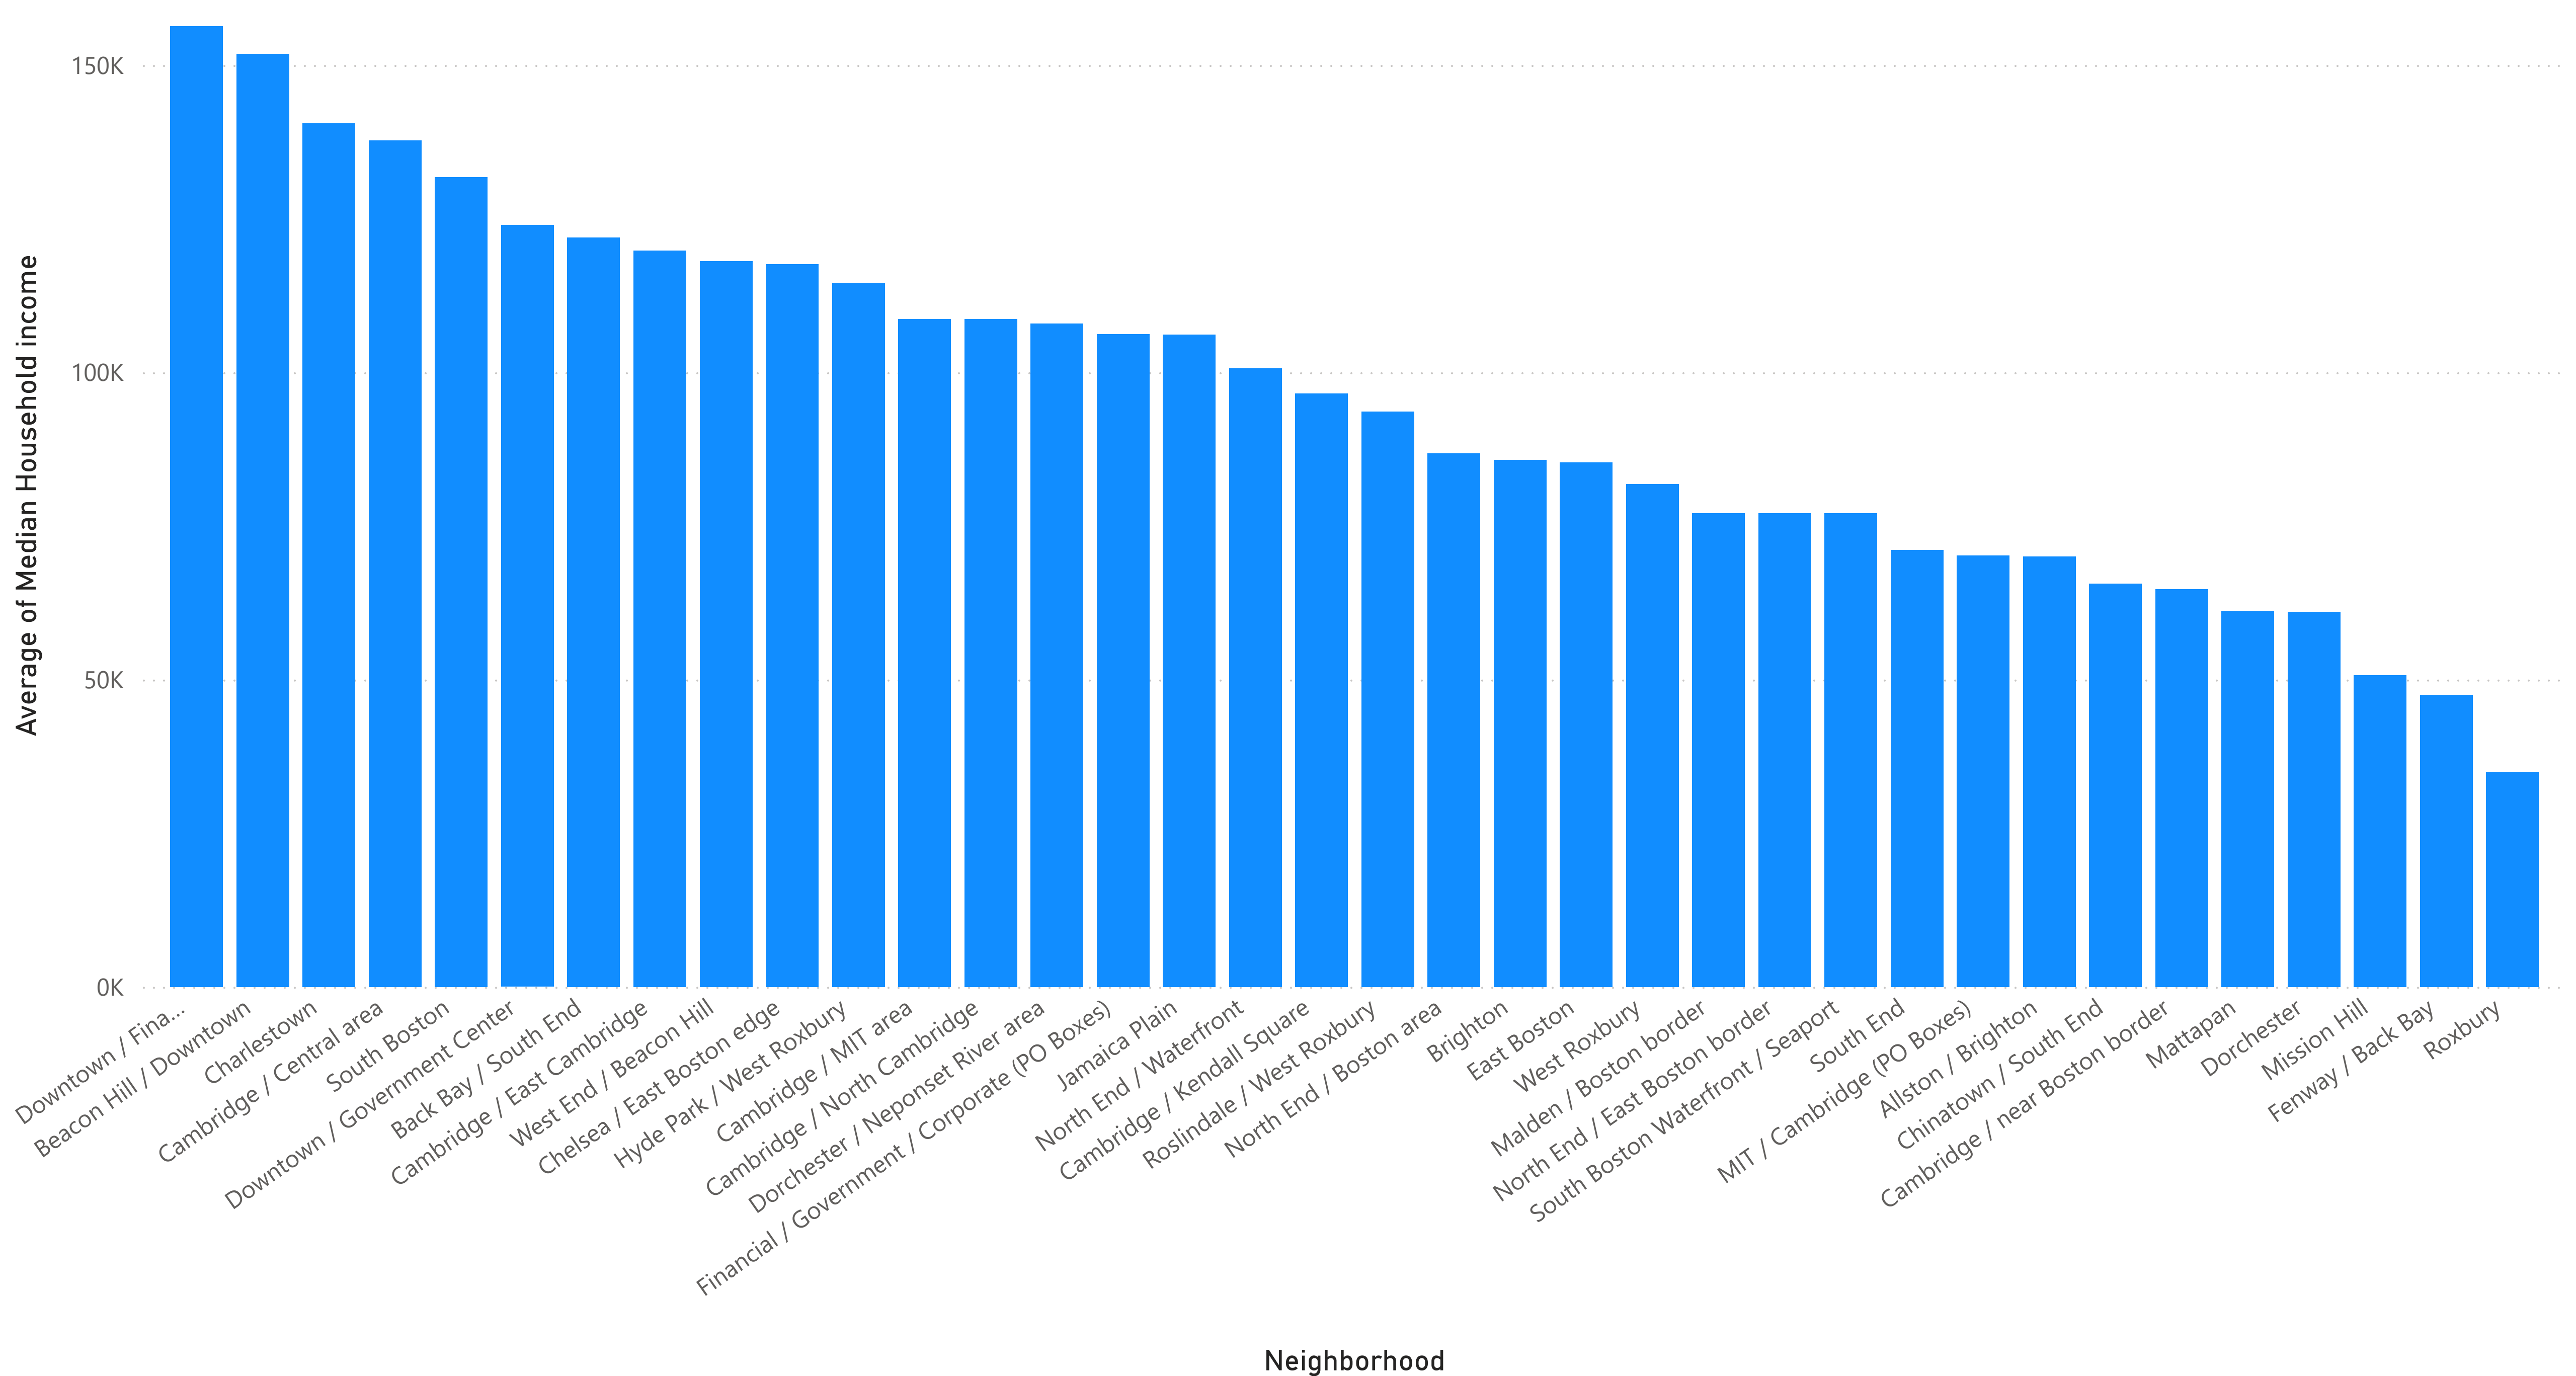

Unemployment Percent by Neighborhood

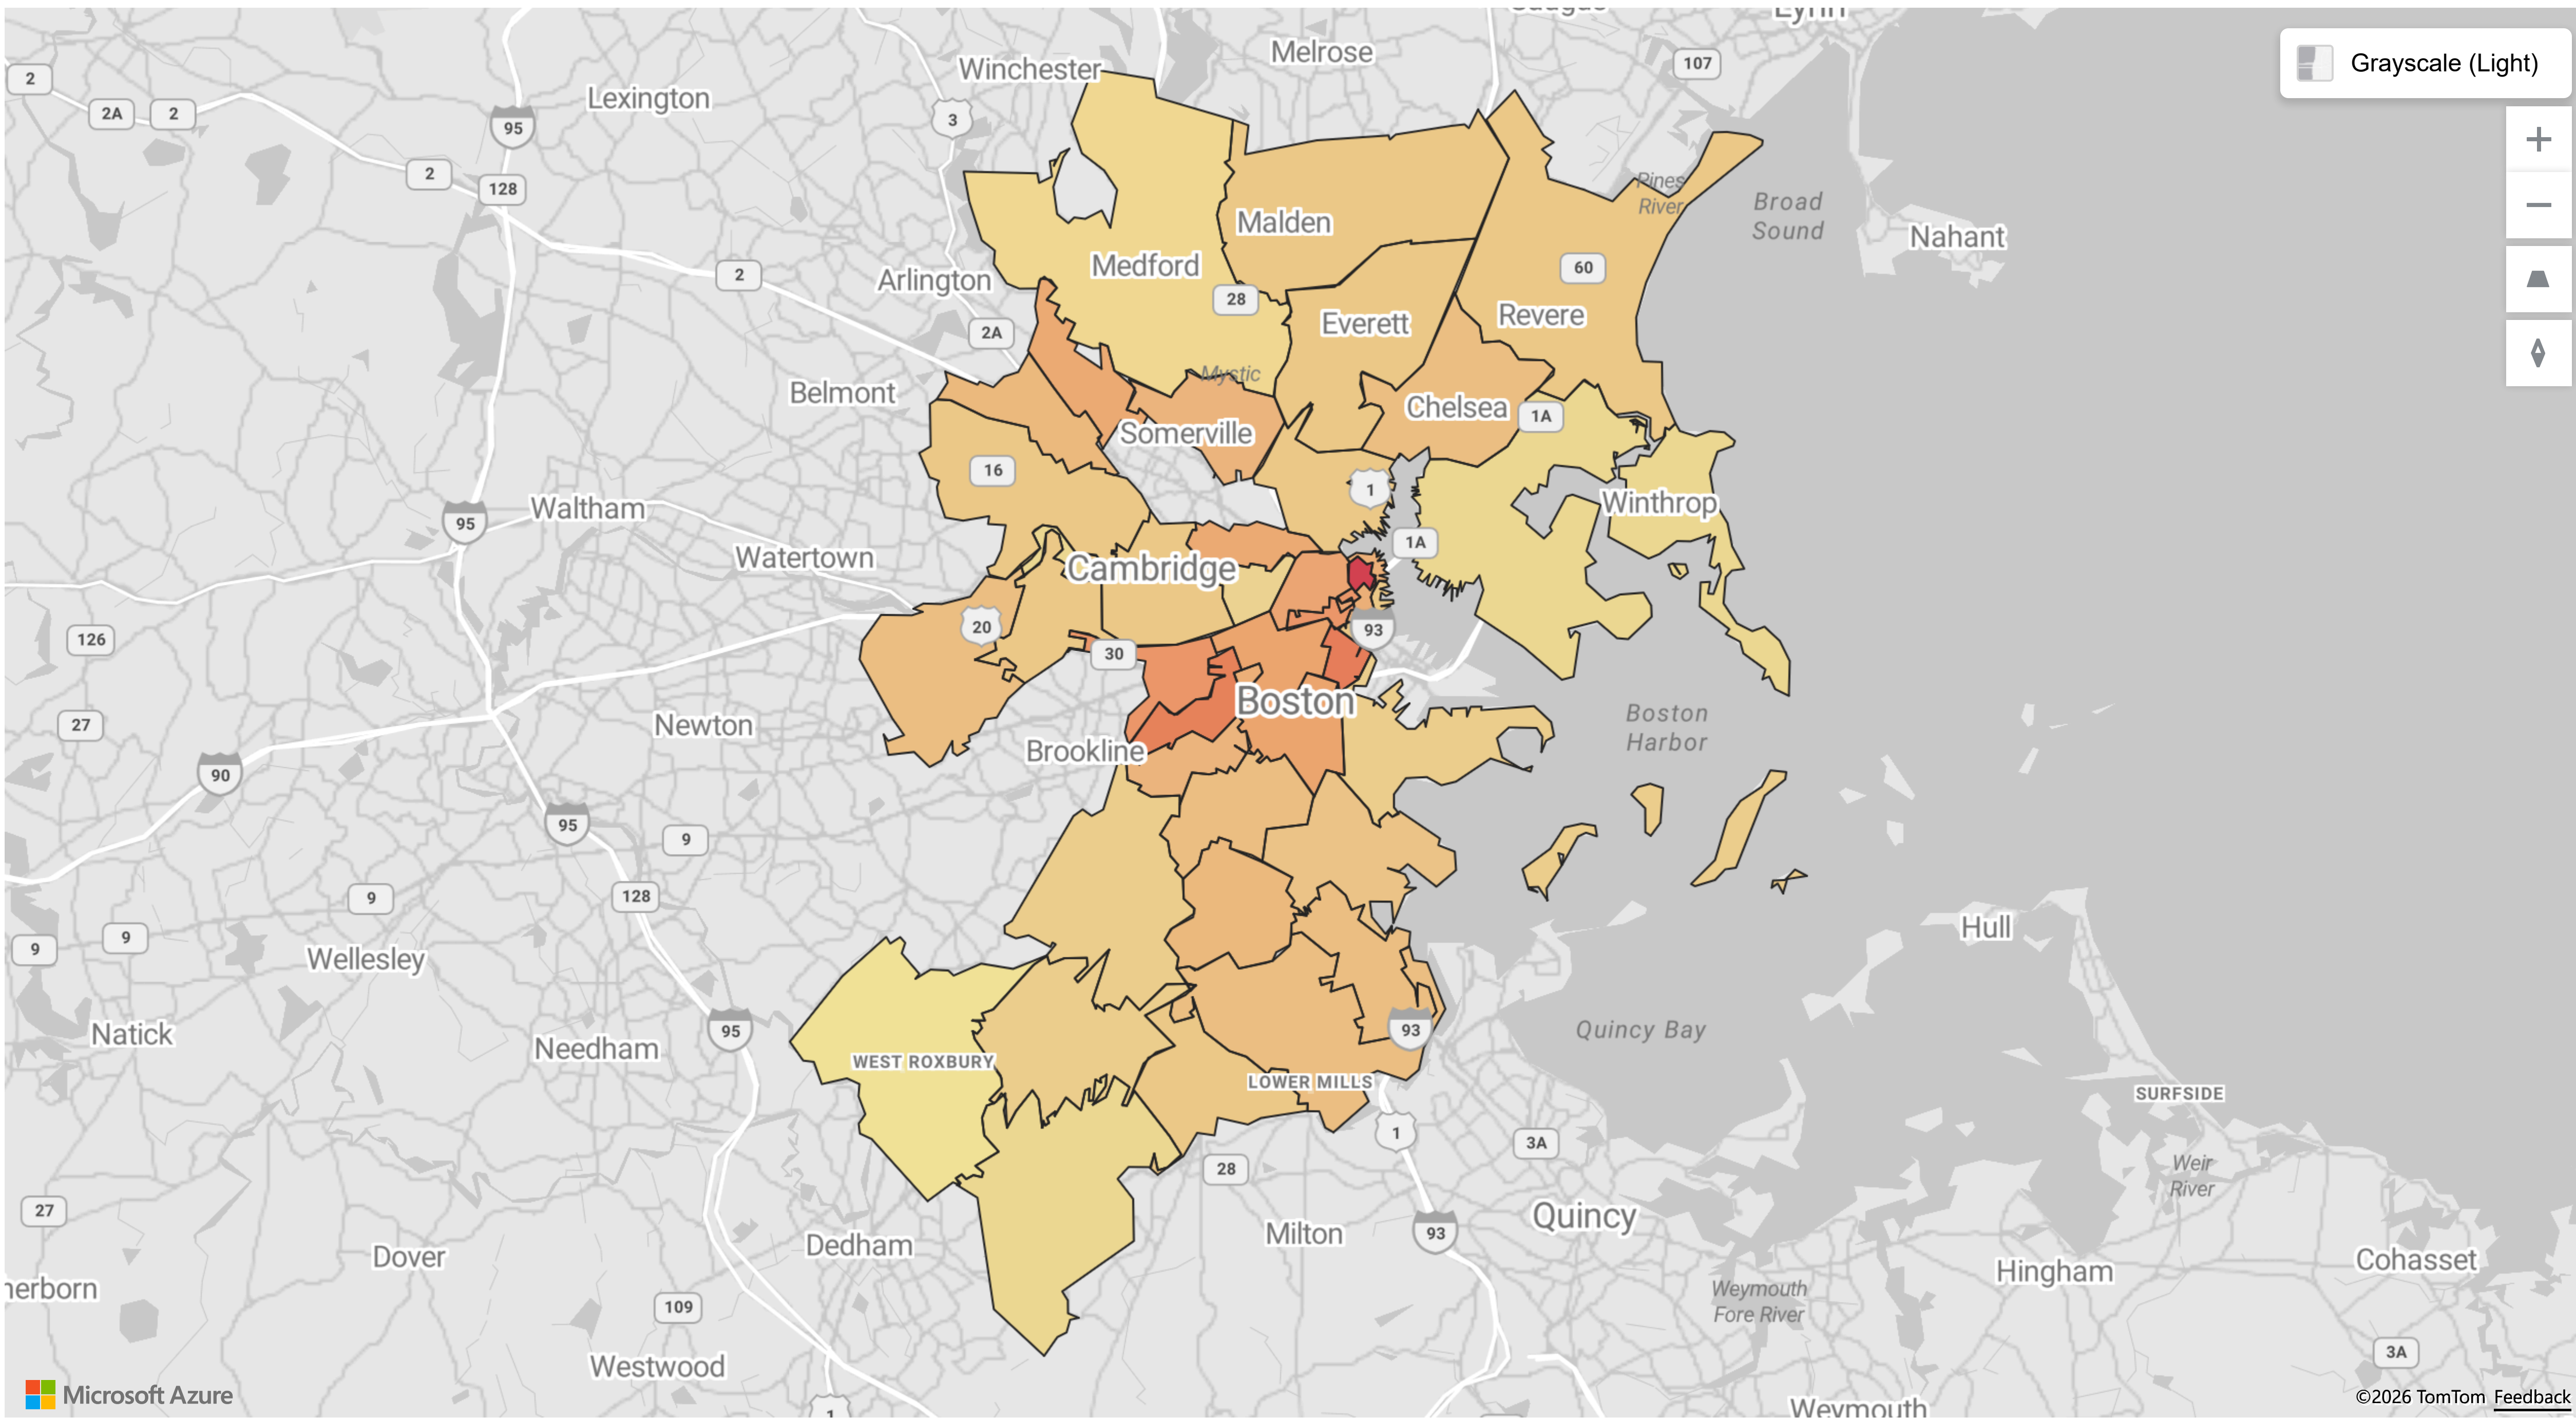

Median home values by neighborhoods

Average of Median Household income by Neighborhood

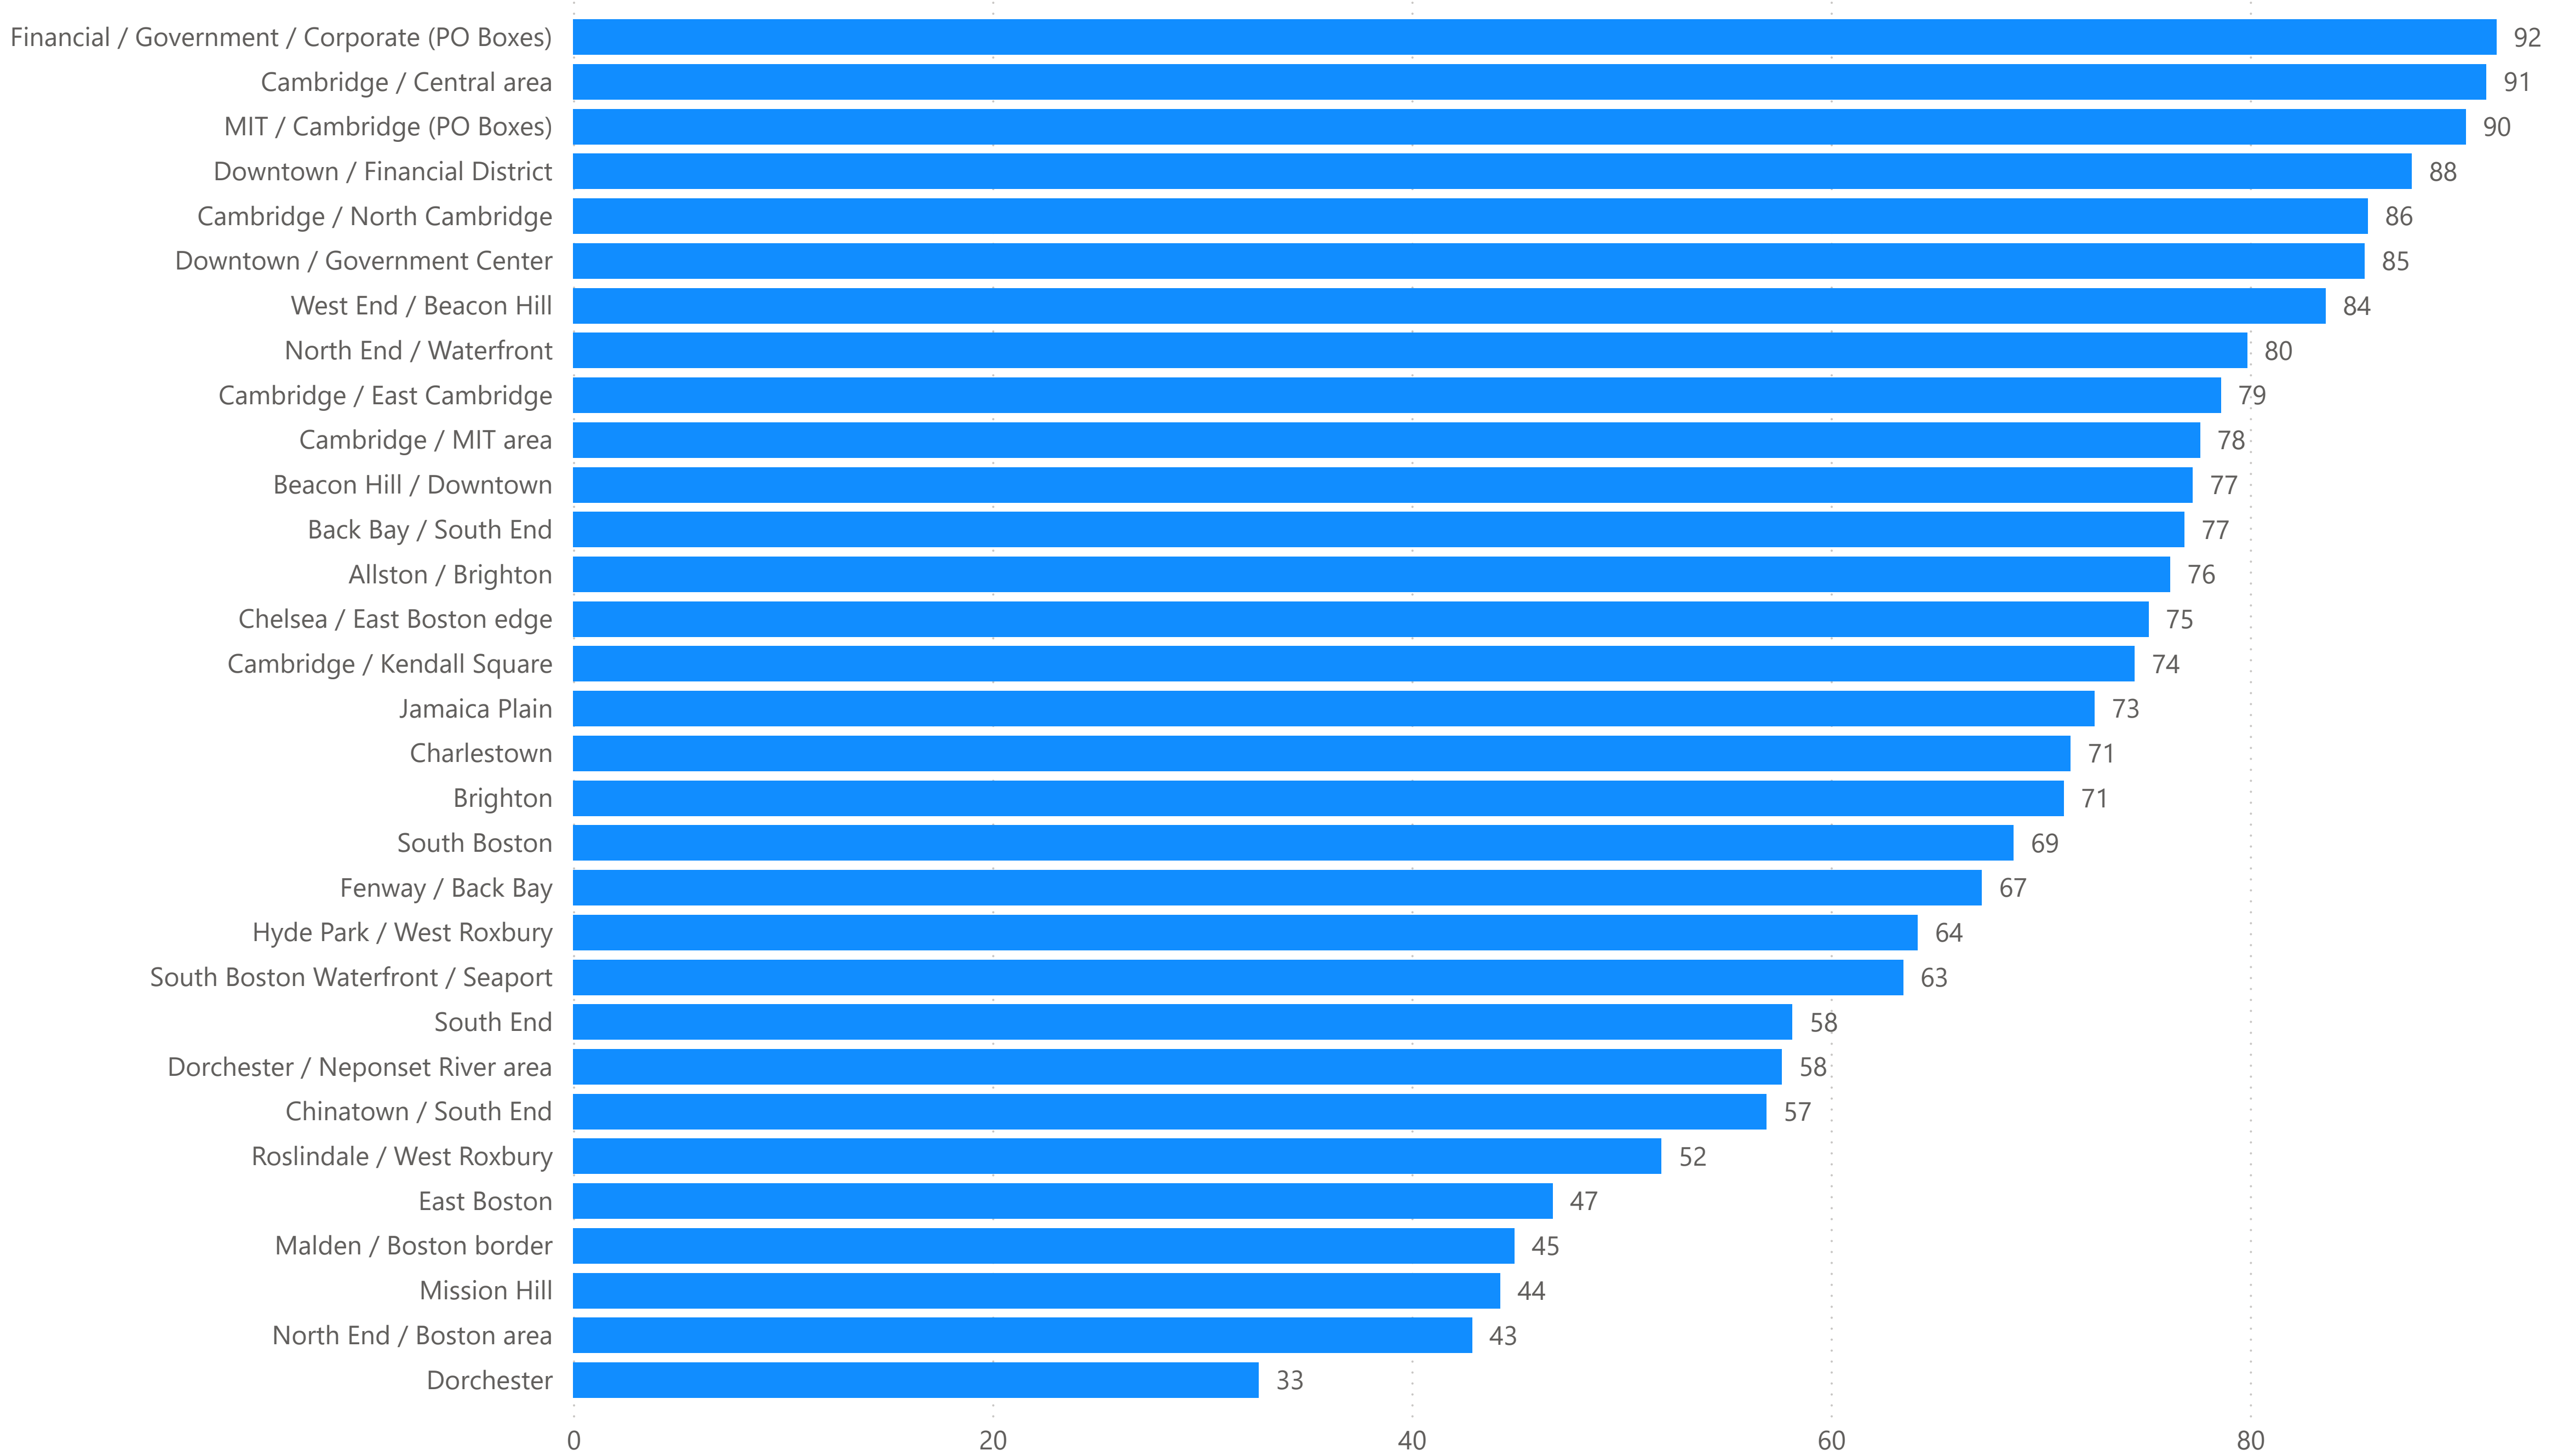

Population density by boston neighborhood

Average of Education level - % of bachelor degree holders or higher by Neighborhood

Neighborhood

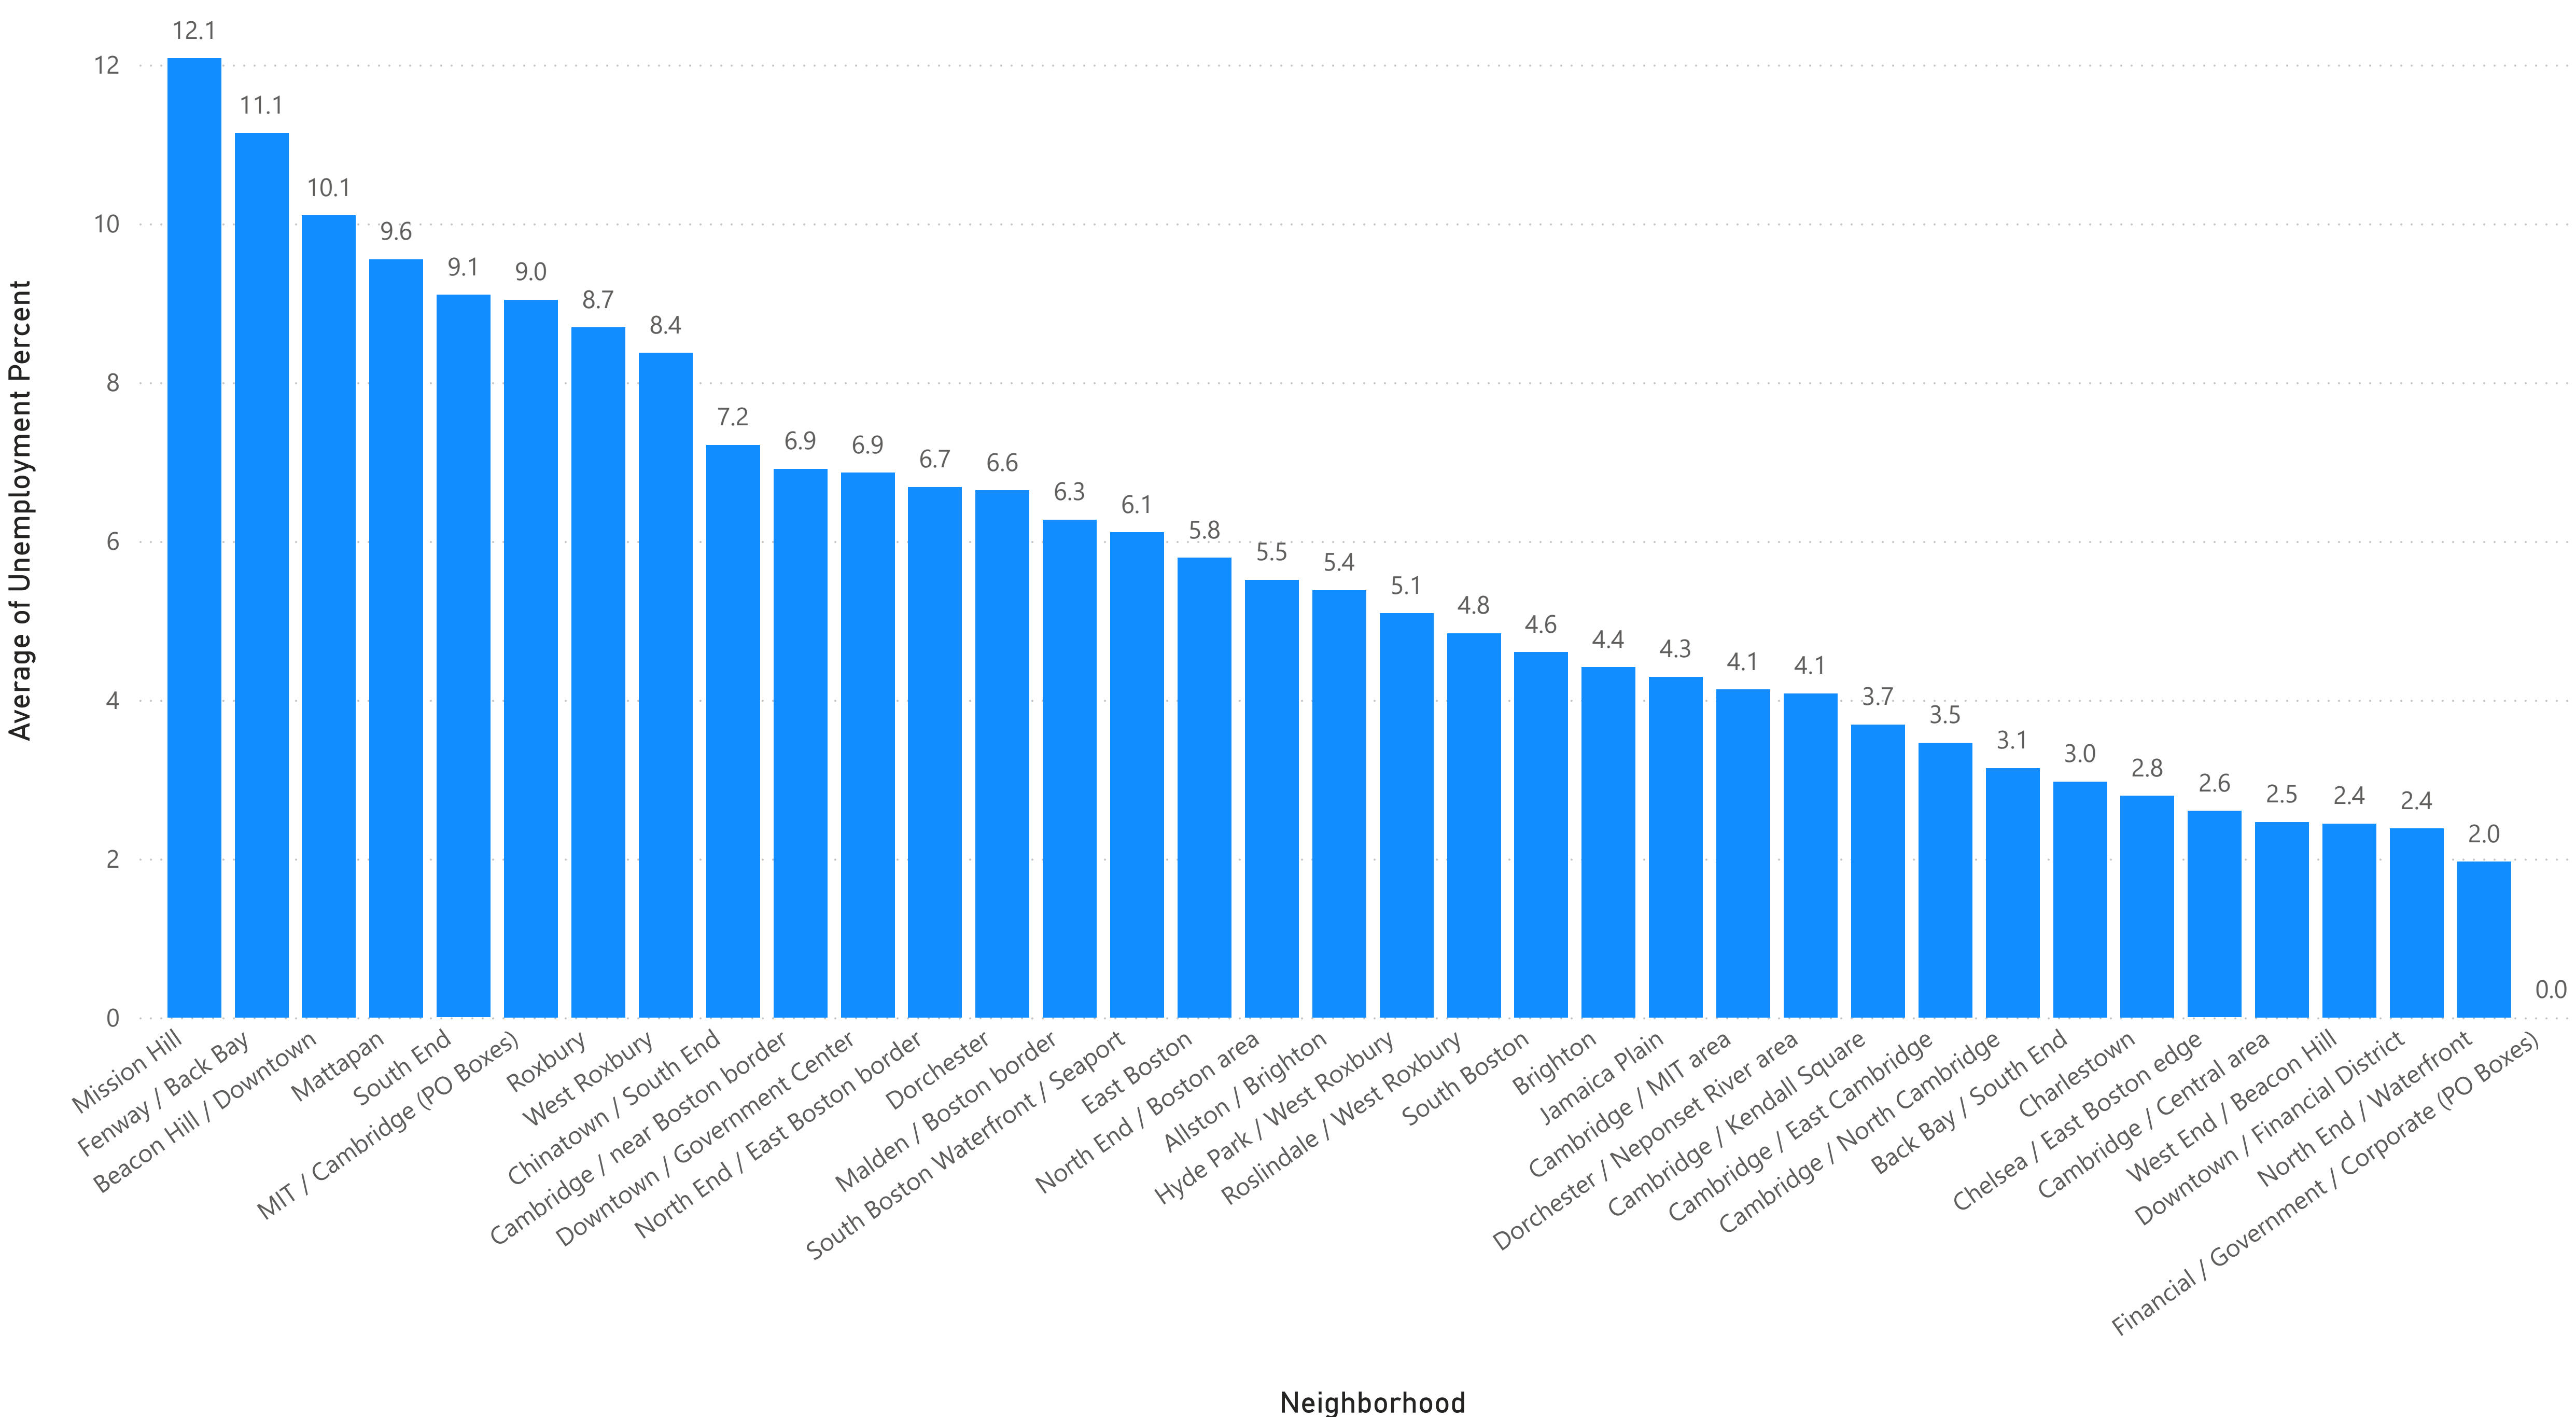

Average of Education level - % of bachelor degree holders or higher

Beacon Hill, Downtown, and Financial District show the highest home values (> $1.5M).
Lower values in Mattapan, Roxbury, and Dorchester reflect affordability and lower demand.

Median home values by neighborhoods

Average of Unemployment Percent by Neighborhood

Multi-metric interactive comparison of Boston Neighborhoods

Variable

■

 Education

□

 Median home value

□

 Median Household income

□

 Population Density

□

 Unemployment Percent

This map visualizes the desirability of Boston neighborhoods based on the selected metrics. The lighter colors indicate higher suitability or stronger performance for the chosen variables, while darker shades reflect lower values.

